

Dive deeper questions

Power Smart for Schools

1. Where do we get our drinking water from?
 - a. Do we use ground water or surface water?
 - b. How is drinking water cleaned and treated?
 - c. Who else, besides humans, uses the water?
 - d. How might the water get contaminated?
 - e. Do industries use the water? How does that affect our drinking water?
2. How will wildlife areas be affected if we use all the water for drinking and electricity?
3. What traditional and current connections do First Nations communities have with these bodies of water?
4. How are wildlife and natural areas affected if humans use too much water for themselves and for making electricity?
5. How can we ensure that there is enough water for all?
6. What are some things we can do every day to reduce our water use?
7. What are some things we can do every day to conserve electricity?
8. How can we encourage other people to conserve water and electricity?